Message from the minister

I grew up with the old Ladybird books, and I remember in one, a picture of the Roman God Janus, with his two faces, one looking back at the old year, the other looking forward to the new. It is usually thought that it is he that the month of January is named after. I always thought him rather creepy! How would he know in which direction to walk?

At this time of year we are encouraged to reflect on the year that has passed, make new resolutions for the year that is to come. For most people the new year's resolutions last just a few days, or even a few hours into the new year, and then we go back to our old ways. It is just too hard to make those changes in ourselves that we know that we need. But January 1st is just one new year's day that we all live by; we also have the beginning of the financial year in April, and the school year begins in September. In our multicultural cities, each religious and ethnic group has its own year beginning and ending to be celebrated with eating and drinking, dancing and music.

Yet the Christian Church doesn't really do end of year, beginning of a new year. We talk about Advent as being the beginning of the church year, but in reality it is the beginning again of a cycle.

As Christians, we retell our faith story year on year, every year. We live again our faith story, and take it into our lives to make it real for the communities in which we live. The end of the cycle for us is not a low point, but the high point of celebrating Christ as King:

God the Father, help us to hear the call of Christ the King and to follow his service, whose kingdom has no end; for he reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, one glory.

Or if we are following the Book of Common Prayer, we end with 'Stir up' Sunday:

Stir up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people; that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may of thee be plenteously rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

In these collects we are being asked to 'hear a call', 'to follow', 'to be stirred up' and 'to do good works'. This is not a time to sit back on our laurels and reflect, but to march onwards and upwards. Through Advent, we are building towards Christmas, the birth of a baby who means everything to us. We are not worried by the long darkness of the days around us, because we know that we are heading for a day when the darkness of the night sky is torn apart and the sheer glory and light of heaven breaks through, shining on our world, illuminating every single dark corner and crack, every place, every person, every soul.

Now in January we are walking in that light. We are following the path of the early years of Jesus. On 1st January we celebrate the naming and circumcision of Jesus. On 6th January we have the Epiphany, the celebration of the arrival of the Magi to kneel and worship at the feet of a tiny baby, destined in the stars they studied, to be a great king, and on 13th January we celebrate the Baptism of Christ, the point at which he is acknowledged openly by God for the first time, when he comes up out of the water having been baptised by his cousin John. ' This is my son in whom I am well pleased'.

Focal Point, January 2019

From there we continue to walk with him through a continuous reading of one of the gospels, which rotate on a three-year cycle, though his ministry, death and resurrection. We then celebrate the beginning of the community which has strived to continue Christ's work across the globe for the last 2,000 years.

Our challenge every hour, of every day, of every year is to walk that journey more closely with the Jesus we love as our brother, our saviour, our companion, our friend; to live his words as he lived them, his actions as he lived them, growing closer daily to our God and Father with the help of the Holy Spirit.

CHRISTINGLE SERVICE

Sunday 13th January at 10.30am

Candles fill the church for this historic service which was revived by The Children's Society 50 years ago

St Mary's Matters

January is a time for new beginnings and making plans for the future. At St Mary's we are aware of the need to balance tradition with planning for future generations, both in terms of worship and development of our wonderful building. I think this is reflected in our carol service, using modern technology to enhance a traditional 'lessons and carols' style service and allow it to take place entirely by candlelight.

This month sees the third birthday of Family Café Church on 27th January. Using a relaxed format accessible to young children, this service remains popular with young families. We are working hard to develop this style of service as well as providing more toys for youngsters at the back of church for all services. We really want to be family friendly! This service has also benefitted from the flexible space we have opened up at the back of the church. If you know of any families with pre-school aged children, please encourage them to give it a try on the fourth Sunday of each month at 9.30am.

Behind the scenes, much work has been carried out to develop plans for the interior of the church. It has been painstaking activity involving a number of different agencies and much credit is due to those who have been pushing things forward. It is likely that there will be a public presentation early this year, so if you are interested please keep an ear out for when this will be.

In the meantime we will be making minor alterations to the kitchen area to make it more useful for functions in the church. If you would like to use the church for an event of some kind then do not hesitate to get in touch with me or another church member.

Pete Midgley
Churchwarden

Prayer breakfast with Jimmy

Saturday January 19th will be the first prayer Breakfast of 2019, writes Helen Willcox. We will be joined by St Barnabas Link Missionary Jimmy Rocks who is home on leave from Brazil.

Here is a note from Jimmy: "We will soon be contacting supporting churches to arrange visits. We will be using that time to look ahead to the next phase of our ministry here in Florianópolis, building upon our initial three-and-a-half years here and wanting to be more intentional in training more leaders and church planters to start new churches within the area.

"As Bill Hybels, the pastor of Willow Creek Church, has often said: 'The local church is the hope of the world.' "It's been great to see the difference that Vineyard Floripa has made in people's lives who come along and the impact it's having in the local community and we want to see that multiplied around Florianópolis."

Come to St Barnabas and hear about the work Jimmy and his family have been doing. Breakfast is at 9am and the talk by Jimmy is at 9.30am. All are welcome.

St Mary's flower rota 2019

If you would like to join me for coffee and biscuits on Saturday 12th January, I would be pleased to see you all. We can then plan the rota for the new year. I shall be in church from 10am.

The Nomine concert that took place last month in St Mary's Church raised £516 for the Children's Hospice South West.

News from Upton Cheyney URC

Thank goodness the heating is fully operational and effective at the chapel now that the cold spell has arrived. You can always tell winter has started when we enter into the barn for Carols in the Barn. It is never warm, it's just always cold; however, this year was probably the least cold it's ever been.

We had the Salvation Army Band playing the carols for the first time and the barn was absolutely full of music. There were many more young people than we have had before. Several of the families really helped out with the organisation and it showed.

The children seem to enjoy decorating and eating the biscuits, picking prizes from the bran tub and singing Meryl's new version of the 12 Days of Christmas.

Many thanks to this month's preachers Alan Tabard, Des and Hilary Colchin, Church coordinator Stephen Newell and finally special thanks to Steve Britten who stepped into the breach when the expected preacher was taken ill.

We wish you all an exceedingly happy New Year.

Stuart Turner

Allotment vacancies

Bitton Parish Council has two allotment sites at North Street and Redfield Hill in Oldland Common and if you are interested in renting a plot (£20 a year for a full plot and £14 for a half plot), contact the council's leisure officer Sarah Jones on 0775 7796155 or email sarahjonesbpc@hotmail.co.uk

Food collection point

Linden Homes, who are building the Bitton Mill development, are collecting for the East Bristol Foodbank.

Non-perishable food items with a 'best before' date clearly on display can be dropped off at the sales and marketing suite until 6th January.

History Group news

Bitton Parish History Group heard an outstanding talk from Tony Wilmott on 5th December about the Bitton Mill.

It was delightful to see that we had no less than 40 people who were new to the History Group who came to hear Tony. We can have no doubt that the talk will help their understanding of the long history of the site and hopefully will have helped them feel welcome in their new village.

Tony mentioned that at the time when automotive parts were manufactured on the site, up to 500 people were employed.

Similarly, when it closed as a paper mill in 1961, it was a serious set-back for the locality as so many people from the surrounding area lost their jobs. Hopefully it will now have a new chapter by providing much-needed homes.

Most of the slides shown in Tony's talk can be seen using the following link: <http://www.bittonhistory.org.uk/intier/>

Our next meeting will be 25th January (Burns Night) at 7pm for 7.30pm at North Common Village Hall, Millers Drive, North Common. We are planning this as a 'Show & Tell' based on 'What did your Grandfather or Grandmother do?'

Leek & Potato Soup

For your supper on Burns Night (25th January) try this Scottish (and the editor's) favourite

Ingredients (Serves 4):

4 leeks, trimmed & chopped
350g/12oz potatoes, diced
850ml/1.5 pints of chicken or vegetable stock
55g/2oz butter
Salt & pepper to season
Extra virgin oil for drizzling (optional)

Method:

1. Over a low heat, melt the butter in a saucepan . Add the leeks and cook, stirring occasionally, for 5 minutes until softened.
2. Add the potatoes and cook for a further three minutes, sitting occasionally. Turn up the heat to medium, pour in the stock and bring to the boil. Reduce the heat, cover and simmer for about 35 to 45 mins, or until the leeks and potatoes are tender.
3. Remove from the heat and stir in the remaining butter in small pieces at a time. Season to taste.
4. Sieve the soup, or ladle straight into a bowl if you prefer a chunky texture. Drizzle with extra virgin olive oil if desired.

A magnificent response from our community after robbery

On Thursday 13th December, robbers targeted the Premier Express convenience store in the High Street, which is run by Kandeepan and Shyamala Ambigaipakan.

At about 5.45pm three men, who had been in the shop on two previous occasions during the day, came back wearing masks and one of them restrained Shyamala.

The others raided the till and stole alcohol and cigarettes from the shelves, along with a mobile phone.

The haul ran into several thousands of pounds. All three robbers made off in a black car.

Shyamala was uninjured but obviously shocked and distressed. Later that evening police, who responded quickly, stopped a vehicle in the St Werburghs area of Bristol and seized alcohol, cash and cigarettes.

A man in his 20s was arrested on suspicion of robbery and later released under investigation.

Kandy and Shyamala had buildings insurance but were not covered for contents. With people from Bitton and the neighbouring villages keen to show support for the couple, a GoFundMe page was set up by Sally Oliver from Church Lane.

She said: "These lovely people who work so hard from 6am to 9pm every day to provide us with everything we need do not deserve this misfortune at this time of year.

"Kandy and Shyamala are originally from Sri Lanka and having recently visited the country myself, I was taken aback by how welcoming and friendly every Sri Lankan we met was and how nothing was too much trouble for them. It would be great to reciprocate this back here and show support for this hard-working family.”

The response to the appeal has been incredible. As we went to print, more than 100 people had donated more than £3,000, smashing the £1,000 target. It included an anonymous donation of £500.

In a letter to the community, Kandy said: “Thank you all for helping us after this robbery. You all gave information to the police bravely and have been helping us in the shop. I am absolutely grateful and happy because of this.

“Thank you for the bouquets, cards and the many other gifts.

See overleaf

“Thank you, all this work and money that you have given is enough for us to continue working in the shop successfully.

“You have been a great help and an amazing and courageous community by helping us a lot after this incident. Sally Oliver, a heartfelt thank you for all that you’ve done.”

Meanwhile anyone with information which could help the police is asked to call 101, quoting crime reference number 5218275783. Alternatively contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111. No personal details are taken, information cannot be traced or recorded and you will not go to court or have to speak to the police.

Recycling your Christmas tree

Before you recycle your real Christmas tree, remove all decorations, pots and stands.

If you subscribe to South Gloucestershire Council’s green bin collection service, you can put your tree into or next to your green bin.

Alternatively you can buy a single use garden waste sack for £2 from your nearest library or Country Stores at 48 High Street, Marshfield. Just attach the sack to the tree for a special one-off collection after Christmas.

If your tree is over 6ft, it must be cut up into smaller sections for collection or taken to a Sort It recycling centre (our nearest is Mangotsfield).

Real Christmas trees need to go into the skip for garden (green) waste, not the wood waste skip.

Report from Bitton WI

This year's group Christmas fair was at Stonor Park, Henley-on-Thames, home of the Stonor family for 850 years. It's a historic country house and private deer park with a private 12th century chapel.

When we arrived my friends and I looked around the house first, which took about two-and-a-half hours, and after lunch we went to the marquees where there were over 100 craft and food stands. It was a very enjoyable day.

The Federation held the Home Skills and Garden Day at Somerset Hall, Portishead. With two speakers in the morning, one on the history of hats and one on basket making, in the afternoon it was the turn of Mary Payne MBE and a Chelsea Flower Show Gold winner who gave a brilliant talk on 'Minimum Effort for Maximum Effect'. One of the many things she told us was how to get rid of bindweed; you take a bunch of it and put it into a polythene bag with weed killer (it must be bought ready to use), tie the top and attach to the fence. She showed us a slide that had killed hers and her neighbours.

Monday 10th December was our Christmas party; as members arrived they were given a glass of wine and the hall looked very festive with a red and white colour scheme.

After the meal, cooked and served by Ros Knight, Janet Ballinger and myself, Lesley Brain recited an extremely funny poem by Pam Ayres called Fifty Shades of Grey. After that everyone was given a secret Santa gift and the evening ended with the raffle and Ann thanking everyone. It was a very enjoyable evening.

Please come and join us at the next meeting on Monday 14th January. I wish you all a very peaceful and healthy New Year.

December's quiz answers

In the December quiz we supplied a mix of factual and cryptic clues and anagrams based on music, literature, pantomime, film and general knowledge, all associated with Christmas.

We asked you to take the first letters of each answer and rearrange them into a seasonal, two-word message.

Here are the answers: 1. Geese, 2. Aladdin, 3. Smith (Tom), 4. Tolkein, 5. Handel, 6. Euphorbia pulcherrima, 7. Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree, 8. Silent Night, 9. In the Bleak Midwinter, 10. Narnia (from The Lion, The Witch & The Wardrobe series), 11. Mistletoe and Wine, 12. Ebenezer Scrooge, 13. Tinsel, 14. Cornet, 15. It's a Wonderful Life, 16. Robin Redbreast, 17. Gentlemen, 18. Stocking.

The festive message you had to find was Christmas Greetings.

Frank FitzGibbon & Co, the Booths, Hannah Moore & Gill Dugay, Jan & Diane, Jon & Pam Heyes, Alan & Sue Murtagh, Ros & Charles Knight and Catriona Kesterton got them all correct. Well done!

The winners of the Christmas draw were Hannah & Gill!
